CREATING MEN AND WOMEN FOR AND WITH OTHERS

- ❖ A long-felt need of the working people of Mangalore was fulfilled in the year 1966 by St Aloysius College, a premier institution run by the Jesuits, as an option for the poor
- ❖ The Evening College provided an opportunity for the many students who had to drop out of their regular education and take up jobs to continue their education and progress in their careers
- ❖ It would be no exaggeration to say that of the nearly 25,000 students who have passed through the hallowed portals of St Aloysius Evening College since its inception, at least 10,000 wouldn't have become graduates!
- ❖ More than 70% of our students earn during the day and learn during the evenings

VISION

Empowering the youth to shape a better future for humankind by forming them into effective and responsive individuals.

MISSION

To foster professionalism through commitment, co-operation, creativity and innovation without distinction of caste or creed, but decidedly with a slant in favour of the marginalized by providing opportunities:

- For academic excellence, social leadership and committed service
- To become professionals prepared to use their talents beyond self-gain and become men and women for and with others
- In leadership with intelligent pursuit of excellence through constant student faculty interaction
